| THE STATE OF MISSOURI, Complainant, vs. THE STATE OF ILLINOIS AND THE SANITARY DISTRICT OF CHICAGO, Defendants. | Original No. 4. |

Comes now the complainant by its Attorney-General, Edward C. Crow, and showing to the Court that certain continuances in the taking of testimony herein having been rendered necessary by engagements of complainant's solicitors, since the last extension by the Court of the time for taking testimony, said continuances having been granted upon motion of complainant.

And showing further that owing to said continuances time, in addition to that heretofore granted by the Court will be required to complete the taking of the testimony herein, leave being first had therefor, moves the Court, will be required to complete the taking of the testimony herein, until the first day of April, 1903.

and that on said first day of April, 1903, or as soon thereafter as possible the Commissioner herein shall return to the Court all the testimony taken by him, without findings of fact or conclusions of law, to the granting of which said motion defendants assent, as is evidenced by the signatures of their solicitors hereto attached.

| THE STATE OF MISSOURI, Complaint, vs. THE STATE OF ILLINOIS AND THE SANITARY DISTRICT OF CHICAGO, Defendants. | Original No. 4. |

Sam B. Jeffries, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is Assistant Attorney-General of the State of Missouri, and as such, has assisted in the conduct of this case on behalf of complainant; that since the granting by the Court of the last extension of time for taking testimony in this case until January 1, 1904, complainant's solicitors have been compelled to ask continuances of the taking of testimony in order to attend to other matters of the State of Missouri devolving upon them, which could not be delayed; that by reason of the foregoing continuances, defendants have not been able to complete the taking of their testimony, and that there will be required to complete the record in this case about three months, in addition to the time heretofore granted by the Court as this affiant is informed by counsel for the defense, and that it will require about one week for the taking of complainant's rebuttal testimony.

SAM B. JEFFRIES.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 8th day of December, 1903.

My term expires January 22, 1907.
